WINTER CAMP 2019

Greetings,

The International Karate Organization Kyokushinkaikan Canada is happy to announce that the 2019 Winter Camp will take place on February 8, 9, 10, 2019.

Gardom Lake Camp will play host to this intense three days of Kyokushin training. Situated just outside Enderby in the North Okanagan, the camp provides all the amenities necessary for a great weekend of training in a natural setting.

Over the years the IKOK-C Winter Training Camp has evolved into a Kyokushin event that not only offers a high level of Kyokushin training for its participants but also embraces and provides a unique opportunity for participants to strengthen their bonds and create lasting memories with like minded Kyokushin students.

Please find here the relevant information for this year's camp.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS TO GARDOM LAKE CAMP

Gardom Lake Bible Camp is located 10km N.W. of Enderby and 16km S.E of Salmon Arm.

▶ Traveling from Kamloops:

Follow the Trans Canada Highway through Salmon Arm. Turn right at the junction of Hwy 97B. Follow 97B for 11km until you reach Gardom Lake Road. You will see the Gardom Lake Bible Camp sign on your right hand side.

▶ Traveling from Kelowna:

Follow Hwy 97 past Enderby to the junction of 97A and 97B. Turn left onto 97B. Travel to the top of a long uphill grade. Gardom Lake Road will be on your left hand side, marked by a large Gardom Lake Bible Camp sign.

From the corner of 97B and Gardom Lake Road the camp is 3km. Follow Gardom Lake Road for 1km and stay to the right as the road reaches a "Y" (if you are traveling at night, be sure to watch for the reflective sign marked Gardom Lake Road at the "Y" or you may turn left without knowing it). Keep going for 1 km more and you will reach a second Gardom Lake Bible Camp sign at the corner of Gardom Lake Road and Glenmary Road (There is a very large with "Cover All Barn" on you left). Turn left onto this gravel road and you will arrive at the camp shortly.
